IF, IN THE YEARS TO COME THESE PAGES SERVE TO BRING BACK THE PLEASANT MEMORIES OF OVR ALMA MATER, NESTLED "IN THE HILLS OF HABERSHAM," OVR EFFORTS WILL HAVE BEEN REWARDED WITH SVCCESS

TO OVR MOTHERS AND FATHERS, THIS, THE THIRTEENTH VOLVME OF THE YONAHIAN IS RESPECT-FVLLY DEDICATED

NINETEEN HVNDRED THIRTY-FOVR

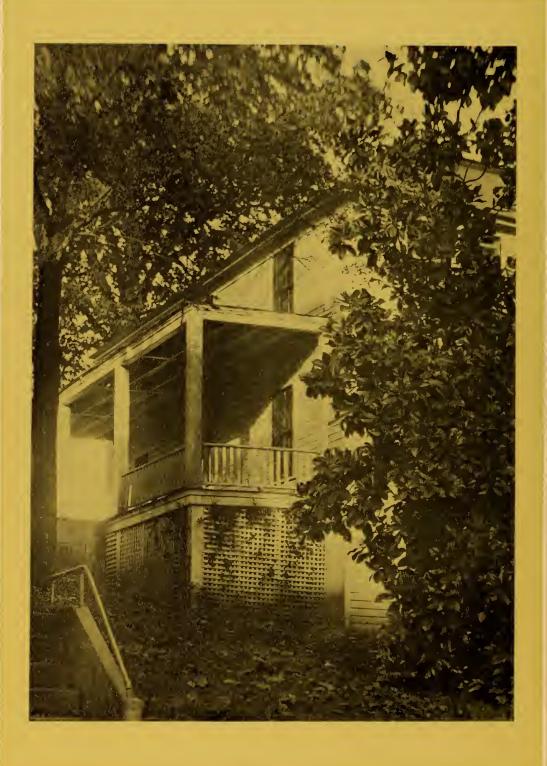

THE SCHOOL

Our friend and counselor, Dean Jonathan C. Rogers. May his joy in a new field of endeavor compensate us for the loss of his friendship and ceaseless efforts in our behalf.

ADMINISTRATION

Dean Jonathan C. Rogers; President H. C. Newell: to these two men the task and responsibilities of the leadership of Piedmont College have fallen. The men and women who have gone out from our College Halls carrying with them some of the vision, a bit of the character, a touch of the personality and a wealth of the friendship of these two men in addition to the wisdom of College years, are living tributes to the relentless efforts and unceasing good will, shown by our President and by our Dean for us.

ATHLETICS

A GREATER GAME

"When the Great Scover comes

To write against your name,

He writes not that you won or lost

But how you played the game."

1934 YONAHAA

FOOTBALL SQUAD

COACH FORRESTER certainly had a hard job on his hands at the beginning this football season. Prospects for a smashing fcotball team were small. Scanty, inexperienced material and vacancies left by graduation of the previous year cast dismal forebodings over the coaching staff. To the undying credit of the coaches and players stands the Tennessee Wesleyan game on home grounds. The "Lions" had lost to them the year before and defeated them the year previous to that, yet outweighed and outclassed—Piedmont displayed the "do or die" spirit and teamwork always characterizes the teams of Piedmont. The Home-coming game was another high spot in the football calendar, Winning from Hiawassee 13 to 6 marks another memorial to the pluck and fight of the "Lions" and the instillation of real teamwork into the squad by the coaching staff.

In singing the praises of the team may we point with justifiable pride to the conscientious efforts of the "scrubs" who were always on the field to contribute their share in making a varsity that displayed the fast ball carrying and shifty footwork of the Piedmont team.

The following men have fought their last battle on the gridiron for the Lions: Harlan Harris, Harry Swindell, Roy Mize, Bob Smith, Ted Owens, Moosie McDonald and Lightning Harper.

STURGIS, Captain

"Sturge" played consistently at right tackle, both on offense and defense, "Sturge" was respected by his team mates, and was a capable leader. In the home-coming game Sturge covered himself with glory by his fierce playing. He was called on to carry the ball, tackle over tackle which he did; making consistent gains.

"Slab" was one of our hardest fighting guards. "Slab" was in every play of the game in which he played and but for a knee injury would have been one of the outstanding linemen. "Slab" should be a valuable guard next season.

CARLETON "Commerce" was made into a reserve center and subbed for Owens in many games, putting up a good brand of football on every occasion.

LEWALLEN "Argo," although green at the first, showed a rapid improvement and became one of our leading offensive ends. He was especially good at pass receiving.

Roy, the most difficult man in our line to move, playing both at tackle and guard. Unfortunately Roy was injured and was unable to play in the last game.

LINDEN Halfback "Hattie," the boy with the elusive hips, playing his first year for the Lions did a lot of the passing and kicking. Linden should be a very valuable man in next year's backfield.

SWINDELL Halfback Harry, the smallest man on the squad was always an inspiration to every member of the team because of his "never-say-die" spirit. He fought valiantly in every game in which he played.

HARRIS End "Possum" finished up his career by receiving a pass for one of the touchdowns in the Homecoming Game. A good trainer, a swell fellow, and a good sportsman.

FARMER Quarter and Half Roy, the triple-threat man, played brilliantly at both quarter and halfback positions. He was equally as good at punting, passing, and carrying the ball. His 96-yard run for a touchdown against Miami University was outstanding. BUTLER

Hugh, playing his first year, alternating at end with "Argo," gave a good account of himself.

OWENS

Center

"Ding Dong" was the starting center. He played brilliantly on the defense in most of the games. He especially covered himself with glory in the last game of the season; which was also his last.

KIRKLAND Tackle

"Boxer" served at both tackle and guard and earned a letter. We're expecting great things of him next year,

> SMITH, Alternate Captain Guard

"Bob," playing his second year at guard, was again one of our most consistent linemen. Bob was our leading interfering guard. He could always be counted on to fight a good hard game.

FOSTER Fullback

A veritable cyclone when it came to hitting the line. He always had the punch for extra yardage through center.

ADAMS Halfback

His first year out he showed wonderful signs of being varsity material in his accurate tackling and shifty ball carrying.

SUTTON

"Sut" played his usual hard game; however better at defense than at offense. I being at Cullowee, where he stood out as the best defensive man on the field. His "red-letter day"

HARPER Tackle

"Lightening," the man who never missed practice. Lightening, when aroused, was a thorn in the side of the varsity in scrimmage.

ACREE Halfback

"Little Jack," playing his first year as a varsity halfback turned in some very good games; but was handicapped by a knee injury in the latter half of the season.

GOODSON

"Jonny Knupp" came to us after having been out of football for several years and was used both at end and in the backfield. He did equally fine work at both positions.

GILLESPIE, Captain Elect Tackle

"Tiny," this year, showed traces of regaining his brilliant form of three years ago, and next year as Captain-elect is expected to be the outstanding lineman of this section.

NORTON Fullback

"Ted" played his second year, developed into a hard-fighting fullback. His playing was very commendable in the last game of the schedule.

INMULAN 1934

BOYS' BASKET-BALL

THE BASKET-BALL SEASON will be remembered as a successful one when the efforts and teamwork of the squad are called to mind. Though all the scores were not in Piedmont's favor there was throughout the entire season a display of co-operation and determination not to quit until the timer's gun was fired that brought many a victory over better teams.

The ability to "come back" and snatch glorious victory from what seemed almost certain defeat stands in the memory of us all when Dahlonega's fast and accurate five played on Piedmont's court.

Harris will be lost to the squad for next year and leave a vacancy hard to fill. "Possum" was never to be caught asleep on the basket-ball court. "Hong-Kong" or "Betty-Jo," if you prefer, played a great game at forward. Farmer as usual played his good well-rounded game. Butler, a freshman, showed promise of fine ability and fast basket-ball.

Here's hoping for the greatest team in Piedmont's history next year.

1934 YONAH LAS

GIRLS' BASKET-BALL

THE GIRLS' TEAM of the past year was built around a few veterans of the preceding season; Dodd, a junior, Puckett and Moss, sophomores and Brewer, a freshman, augmented by Jessie Cook made up one of the most promising varsity teams since the Champions of '28.

It was a difficult problem for Coach Forrester to find competition for the girls' squad and their almost unbroken list of victories promises a great team for next year. Post-season games were held between class teams and this was enjoyed by all classes.

The girls' second team have earned their share of the praise in building the regulars by their keen competition for regular places and keeping the varsity "on their toes" throughout the season.

MAMIAN 1934

MONTFORD PAGE

Forward

"Betty-Jo" this year displayed marvelous speed and consistency, which proved a main cog in the Piedmont five.

ROY FARMER (Captain)

Forward

Abie led his team mates to victory glory and was indeed popular with the players. Time and time again Roy would flash across the floor to score the deciding point.

H. A. CARLTON

Guard

Commerce was always an able man and never neglected to give all that he had. We are expecting big things from Commerce next year.

HUGH BUTLER

Forward

Hugh came to us as a freshman and "Fight" was his motto. Hugh was always in the thick until the last whistle.

THOMAS GOODSON

Guard

Tom, the lad from Royston, could always be depended upon to hold his share of either victory or defeat. A true sport.

MILTON WHITE

Guard

It can always be said of Mit that his place would be hard to fill. Mit will be back with us next year and fighting for Piedmont.

HARLAN HARRIS

Guard

For three years "Nig" has been one of the high scorers for Piedmont. His end of the play was never weak. A substitute for Harris will be hard to find.

1934 YONAHIAA

BOYS' BASKET-BALL

U. L. HUDSON

Guard

Hud was always dependable for his share of battle. Hud could not spell defeat.

TELFORD VICKERS

Forward

"Dark Horse" was one of the most willing men on Piedmont's squad. He was constantly ready to do his part to the best of his ability.

CARL GILLESPIE

Center

"Big Gib" never missed a chance to give all that he had. Carl was always reliable. We want you back next year, "Big Gib."

LAWTON BANISTER

_

Banny leaves us this year, but his clean, hard playing will serve as a symbol of true sportsmanship.

OTHO LEW ALLEN

Center

This was Argo's second year and he deserves much credit for the successful season that the Lions had this year.

AUBREY MIZE

Guard

Mize was another of our freshmen and always served as any true Piedmont man would.

ROBERT SMITH (Co-captain)

Forward

This was Bob's last season with Piedmont, but the memory of his career while at Piedmont will live forever. Bob was consistent and never missed carrying the fight to the limit.

COOK

Forward

Jessie was a fast basket-ball player, a dead shot, and could always be counted on to make things hot for the opposition.

DODD

Guard

Rubye was handicapped with a bad knee a larger part of the season, but always proved to be a barrier on the visiting forwards.

GRANT

Guard

Cleo, another one of our freshman stars, who was always ready to do her part on making Piedmont the winning team.

GRISBY

Guard

Dot was always there fighting for the Lions.

MEEKS

Forward

Genelle proved to be the team's best spare forward, and a worthy substitute when called on.

ADDISON

Guard

Hazel, another freshman who had plenty of pep and fight, and ever tried to make things hot for the opposing team.

1934 TONAMIA

PUCKETT

Guard

Lou Anna, always fighting, ever dependable, and one of the outstanding guards on Piedmont's team.

MOSS

Forward

Mamie, always anxious to do her part in pulling the Lions through to victory.

MALCOLM

Guard

Matilda made a good beginning and we're glad to know that she'll be back next year fighting for the Lions.

BREWER

Center

Virginia, tall, rangy, and a great team player. She always proved to be a great asset to the team in shooting goals and getting the top off.

MARTIN

Guard

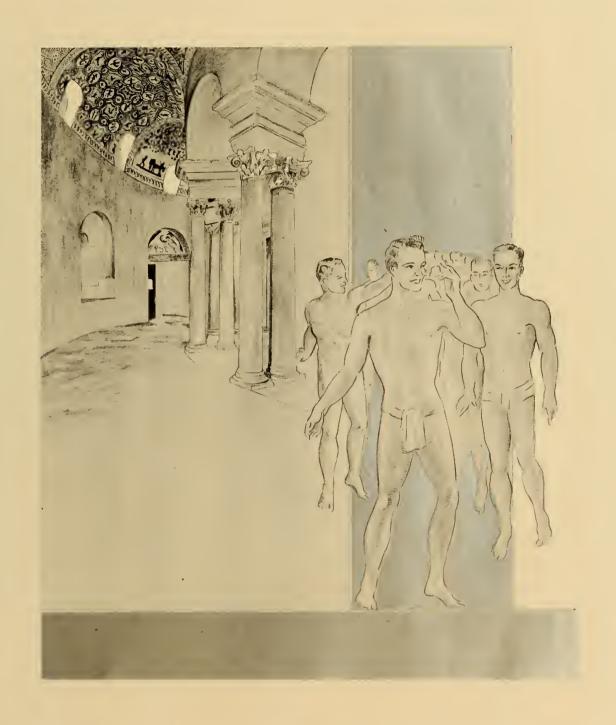

Wenonah has made a good beginning and we're glad to know that she will be back again next year scrapping for the Green and Gold.

SELF

Forward

Annie Martha, she was small in size, but always played an aggressive game.

"With love and praise
Come let us sing
To our dear ole Gamma Chi!"

THE HEARTS OF STUDENTS AND ALUMNAE thrill to these lines. Gamma Chi is striving through the years to be of more and more service to its members by presenting in its meetings the best things in cultural arts, such as music, literature, and drama. The programs this year have been educational and at the same time amusing and pleasing. A good example of this fact was the Twelfth Anniversary Program which included humorous as well as more substantial qualities.

We hope to strengthen the relationship between our Alumnae and our Alma Mater through such factors as Gamma Chi with its growing scholarship fund, its sponsor, its talented little mascot, and its group of loyal girls.

THE PROTROPIAN LITERARY SOCIETY was constituted in 1897. Since that time it has been a vital force in the building of real character and manhood in the men who have taken advantage of its offer of brotherly love, and mutual endeavors toward lofty and noble ideals.

The primary object of the Protropian Society is to bring together men with kindred interests, thoughts, and ideals so that they may enjoy each other's society and gain mutual benefits from such contacts. The men that make up the Protropian Society are bound together by elements of brotherly love and co-operation. Each man renders to the entire group such strength and talent as he possesses and receives the courage, inspiration, and protection of the whole organization.

The Thirty-Seventh Anniversary Program was presented on March twenty-eighth. It gave evidence of another successful year in Protropian history.

The Protropians selected Miss Madge Osigian for their sponsor this year. Miss Osigian is an outstanding leader and a true Protropian. The wise choice of a Sponsor has meant much toward making this year successful for the Protropian Society.

THE THETA ZETA PHI SOCIETY this year celebrated its fourteenth anniversary. This represents fourteen years of striving for the purpose of accomplishing those ends, namely: a higher standard of womanhood, and enrichment of lives on this campus with those qualities such as music and literature offer.

The name of the Society symbolizes truth, wisdom and success. It is the desire of every member to realize as near as possible this goal which we have set before ourselves as the aim of all loyal Theta Zeta Phis.

THE J. S. GREEN LITERARY SOCIETY was organized in 1897 for the purpose of developing the young men of Piedmont College mentally, morally and socially.

In their weekly meetings the members learn to express themselves freely and clearly through open discussions and debates. They strive always to go forward and higher up the ladder of success as expressed in their motto, "Excelsior."

"Once a J. S. Green always a J. S. Green," is the whole sentiment of every old member as well as of every new one, because a J. S. Green can always be recognized by his whole-hearted belief in the society and fellow members.

At its thirty-seventh anniversary program the J. S. Green Society entertained by the presentation of the sponsor, Miss Mildred Free, who is the popular and talented member of the student body, followed by a three-act play, "The Man in the Shadow." The response of the audience proved the great success of the whole entertainment.

The work of the society this year has been a marked success. If only the men of 1897 came back today they would find that the J. S. Green Society has become much more than a debating society. Its scope has been widened to include he literary and social interests of its members.

Our thirty-seventh year gives promise of a future which shall build worthily on the past.
